

4Ws So That You May Know The Resurrection

John 20:1-18

Dgroup's Curriculum: Leader's Copy

WORSHIP

Consider reading Psalm 48 together, taking turns reading a verse at a time, or reading responsively with the leader reading a verse and the group responding with the next verse. You can discuss the Psalms you read and share what they mean to you.

Consider singing some of the songs on the sheets that were included in your packet if you have someone in the group that plays the guitar or can lead music and/or play the guitar.

WELCOME

Questions.

What one truth have you believed and eagerly shared to others?

WORD

Discussion Questions.

1. How do you think the disciples were feeling in the 3 days after the crucifixion of Jesus? How would you feel if you were in their place?
2. What are some clues that the disciples discover in the tomb that tell them that Jesus' body was likely not stolen?
3. Mary was overcome with grief, the disciples with fear. What's one thing they all had in common before seeing Jesus?
4. In John 20:15, Jesus asked Mary two simple questions ("Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?") what do these questions teach us about handling grief, sorrow and other life challenges.
5. What does the resurrection of Jesus prove about what Jesus said about Himself throughout the entire book of John? How does Christ's resurrection affect our daily lives?

WORK

We are called to be fishers of people and be earthly shepherds. We are tasked to cast the net of the gospel to people and guide them to grow in Christ-likeness so that they can likewise be fishers of people and tend the sheep of Jesus.

List down the names of the people who you intend to share the gospel to and lead towards a growing relationship with Jesus.

Close your time together in prayer.
